MEMORANDUM FOR: Secretary, Intelligence Advisory Committee
SUBJECT : First Draft of NSCID No. 5

1. The Deputy Director (Coordination) desires that the attached draft revision of NSCID No. 5 be disseminated to the IAC as were the drafts of NSCIDs Nos. 1, 2, and 3.

2. Because of the drastic revision of this NSCID, the practice of submitting a draft in which the old language is lined out and the new language underlined will not be followed in this case.

3. The members of the IAC Task Force on revision of the NSCIDs will be notified when a meeting will be held on NSCID No. 5.

4. Please have five extra copies of the draft Directive sent to the DD/C's office for his use.

7. Other Departments and Agencies shall assist the Central Intelligence Agency in its conduct of espionage by providing continuous and timely guidance, specific collection requirements, and assessments of intelligence information collected.

8. In the conduct of national espionage and counterintelligence the Director of Central Intelligence shall make arrangements with the Departments and Agencies for such cover support as may be needed by the Central Intelligence Agency.

9. In a foreign area other than an active theater of war where U. S. forces are engaged in combat, the designated representative of the Director of Central Intelligence shall keep the senior U. S. representative appropriately advised of U. S. espionage and counterintelligence activities conducted in or from the area.

10. In a foreign area where major U.S. military commands are stationed, the designated representative of the Director of Central Intelligence shall keep the senior U.S. military commanders informed of the espionage and counterintelligence operations conducted by the Central Intelligence Agency in or from the area in direct support of the commanders.

11. The Central Intelligence Agency is responsible for the establishment, conduct, and development of liaison concerning clandestine matters with foreign intelligence and security services. Other Departments and Agencies may conduct liaison on non-clandestine matters with foreign intelligence and security services as required for the proper execution of their missions. However, all liaison which concerns or affects clandestine matters shall be coordinated in advance and on a continuing basis with the Central Intelligence Agency in order to insure that such relationships are beneficial to the over-all clandestine interests of the U. S.

12. In active theaters of war where U.S. forces are engaged in combat:

a. All resources of the Central Intelligence Agency shall be included in a CIA Theater Force and, through the CIA commander thereof, shall provide espionage and counterintelligence support to military operations in accordance with the requirements of the U.S. Military Theater Commander or the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

b. Such exceptional espionage and counterintelligence operations as may be conducted by the CIA Theater Force in support of national requirements as distinguished from those operations conducted in support of the Military Theater Commander shall be coordinated by the Director of Central Intelligence with the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

c. The Director of Central Intelligence and the Joint Chiefs of Staff shall establish procedures for the coordination of liaison between U.S. military commanders and foreign services concerning clandestine matters.
